From the Dean

Dear AGO Members, Friends and Colleagues,

A fellow Chapter member, opening our 2023-2024 Yearbook to page 9, was heard to inquire, "Who is Jason Roberts?" Here's a 'preview of coming attractions': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=chAA10NnrJg>

Jason Roberts, who improvised that prelude and fugue, is a winner of AGO's National Improvisation Competition. He's the featured artist for our first Chapter Event in 2024 (which is the Atlanta Chapter's 110th anniversary year), Friday evening, January 12, and Saturday morning, January 13, at Peachtree Road United Methodist Church. Do you own an improvisation method book by Gerre Hancock or Michelle Johns? Why not keep it handy over the next few months? Your musical fluency may expand, along with appreciation for what's shared and heard in January!

Each new or renewed membership in our AGO Chapter increases the ability to plan more confidently for our Chapter's near future. Every member can join our Membership Committee! It should not be assumed that friends whom we met as long-time members of AGO have maintained membership in our Chapter since 2020. Kindly ask, and then encourage each person to share input as renewing members who may attend and participate in Atlanta Chapter Events! Elizabeth George, CMM, is Chief Officer for Membership and Chapter Development at AGO Headquarters. Elizabeth traveled to Atlanta to attend our October 21st Executive Board Meeting, and acknowledged our Chapter's progress thus far. She emphasized practical assistance available from AGO Headquarters to expedite improvements from which we can benefit.

Just as our 2023-2024 Yearbook was going to the printer, Sandy Land withdrew from the job of Chapter Co-Dean, due to reduced energy from "long COVID" among other reasons. I'm sure Sandy will contribute as she is able, giving her time and talent where her strongest enthusiasm lies.

Please note: Those interested in AGO Certification should contact Sue Mitchell-Wallace, FAGO, until a new Exam Coordinator can be found. Several other Chapter Committees (see page 30 of the Yearbook) are still in formation. Thankfully, Dr. Sean Vogt, Co-Sub-Dean, has created an online spreadsheet (<https://docs.google.com/spreadsheets/d/12NXHLhPIP1n65UhYLOGVMb1kWpksu74TomLEJAs1hsw/edit?usp=sharing>) of Committees, whereby members may volunteer.

As 2023 draws to a close, I'm very thankful to the two generous colleagues who provided opportunities this fall for AGO Chapter members to get reacquainted — and to play and hear music reminding us why we love the pipe organ: Joyce Schemanske at St. Anne's Episcopal, Atlanta (the perfect venue on 9/29 for Bach's Orgelbuchlein), and Mary Ruth Lavery-Solem at Dunwoody United Methodist, where Amanda Mole's dazzling performance on October 27 was followed by a festive reception to meet and chat with one another.

I'm eager to see you at events our Sub-Deans have planned for January & February! The Chapter Nominating Committee is being formed prior to December 31. We'll be on track for an online election of two new Board Members-At-Large in Spring 2024. Over the next 6 weeks, I'll carry Yearbooks to hand-deliver when I see AGO members.

May your Advent & Christmas Seasons be as blessed as they are busy!

Joanne Cobb Brown, CAGO
Co-Dean, Atlanta AGO

Two days after Mothers' Day this past spring, I contracted a case of "long COVID" which had me basically bedridden for 2½ months. At the end of July, when it was suggested that I share the position of Dean with my friend Joanne Brown, I did not foresee the lingering effects of long COVID, especially the lack of energy and, perhaps even worse, of focus. I'll continue to help the Chapter as I am able, but regrettably I don't feel that I can continue as Co-Dean, and Joanne has graciously agreed to be the Dean this year.

On another note, our two Sub-Deans have planned (with very little lead time) a wide variety of outstanding concerts and workshops for the 2023-2024 season. The first two of these have been excellent. I hope that you will find the time to attend some, if not all, of them, and I hope to see you then.

Alexandra (Sandy) Land
