Bradley Welch

A native of Knoxville, TN, Bradley Hunter Welch began playing the piano at age 10 and organ at age 13. Bradley attended Baylor University in Waco, TX and studied organ with Joyce Jones and piano with Jane Abbott-Kirk. In May 1997, he received the Bachelor of Music degree magna cum laude in Organ Performance as well as winning the Dean's Award for Outstanding Performance.

After Baylor, Bradley continued his studies at Yale University where he studied with Thomas Murray and Martin Jean. In May 1999, he completed his Master of Music degree in Organ Performance at the Yale University School of Music/Institute of Sacred Music. Bradley then continued at Yale to earn the Artist Diploma in May 2000, at which time he was awarded the Horatio Parker Memorial Prize, the most prestigious prize awarded by the Yale faculty. In May 2001, he completed the Master of Musical Arts degree, which signifies that he has completed all the classwork for Yale's Doctor of Musical Arts degree. During his time at Yale, he also received the Robert Baker Prize (given to an incoming organ student who is deemed to be in the top 1-2% of the nation's young organists), the Charles Ives Prize, and the Yale School of Music Alumni Association Prize.

In addition to his studies, Bradley has competed in several competitions. He won First Place in the Undergraduate Division of the 1994 William Hall Organ Competition in San Antonio, TX. In 1995, Bradley was a National Finalist in the Organ Division of the Music Teachers National Association Competition. In July of that same year, he won First Place in the American Guild of Organists Region VII Competition for Young Organists. He is the 2003 First Place winner of

From the Dean

I was proud of our Chapter Members who turned out for the Saturday event on January 15th at Parkey Organbuilders in Duluth. After a scrumptious hot breakfast was enjoyed by 39 members and their guests, close to 80 people attended the master class in Organ Construction and Maintenance, presented by Phil Parkey, President and Tonal Director. THANKS to Phil and to Sam Polk, Michael Morris, Barry Wallace, and Ben Lewis, who provided additional hospitality to all of us! Phil prepared a detailed outline which included mechanics of the pipe organ, illustrations, necessary ingredients for optimum sound, semantics of service problems, tuning, and a bibliography from his personal library. At the conclusion of the two-hour class, Phil invited us to stay for a guided walk-through of Parkey OrganBuilders, which will mark its 10th anniversary in May 2005! Attendees (including 3 very young students) also had the opportunity to purchase used music and recordings. Jeff Harbin, who has chaired Used Music Sales for the past 4 years (storing many boxes at his home), now seeks a successor for this job. Please contact Jeff or myself if you are interested! We're very grateful that our used music - in new, labeled plastic lidded crates, is currently stored at Parkey Organbuilders!

On Saturday, January 8th, the planning meeting for our Regional Convention in 2007 (June 17-21 in Atlanta) was ably led by Bruce Neswick in a manner which celebrated the rich tapestry of talented musicians and composers we might draw upon, here in the Southeast and beyond... Remember that January 31st is the deadline for the most affordable registration fee for our next Region IV Convention, June 13-15 in Columbus.

Thanks to Bill Coscarelli, Sub-Dean of the Northeast Ga. Chapter of AGO (Athens), we now have an up-to-date members-only Atlanta Chapter LISTSERV for you to use! Our Dinner Reservations Chairman, David Barber, will be sending only announcements and reminders in connection with official Chapter events. Did any of you miss Bo Emerson's article in the AJC on January 8th? - with a wonderful photo of Tim Wissler at the console of John Whitney's Peragallo organ! Watch for improvements to our website, as advised by Tim Shepard our Webmaster.

How early can you leave for historic Covington on Tuesday, April 12th? Discuss carpooling ahead of time with friends/guests! The main event will be a DUO Concert at 8 pm by our own 'AAGO twins' - Becky Griffin Ramsey & Alice Griffin Walker. The afternoon will begin with a tour of outstanding historic homes in the area, followed by the 5:45 pm recital by 2004 Chapter Scholarship Winner, Anna Davis, whose program will include the official premiere of the commissioned organ pieces by Dr. Timothy Albrecht which are listed in the yearbook as our March 'event'. Betty Williford did a fine job of desktop publishing the collection, which was handed out at the December 28th party. You'll have another opportunity to pick up your copy of the pieces at the dinner check-in table on February 15th, where you should ALSO LOOK FOR: Yearbook addendum from our Registrar, Cindy Forbes; Phil Parkey's hand-out from January 15th; Oct.12th's 90th anniv./history booklets, and NEW BROCHURES for Chapter MEMBERSHIP which have been prepared by Will Rogers. The middle of a fabulous concert is a SAD time to think of that someone you should have invited, so....

Note the early Monday night deadline for our February 15th event, invite a GUEST to hear Bradley Welch in concert (don't forget your Ticket Coupon) at Peachtree Road UMC, and join me in thanking our hosts, Scott Atchison and Michael Shake. Two important AGO events will take place on Fridays April 8th (Regional Competition for Young Organists at PRUMC) and April 22nd (Chapter Scholarship Auditions at Holy Trinity Episcopal in Decatur), which you will be invited to attend! Thanks to Keith Nash, Michael Shake, Sarah Martin, Jeff Harbin, and Gwen Bacon for helping make these worthwhile events possible. Please contact Keith Nash immediately re: any graduate level, undergraduate, or high school student planning to study organ who might play on April 22nd. Plan to hear Dr. Faythe Freese in concert on May 10th - a great way to end this year's programs! Since we have no March issue of the Organizer, I'll close by wishing each one of you a smoothly-run Holy Week with dependable choir members and no ciphers or residual 'burn-out'. Meanwhile, I expect I'll see many of you at Grace Methodist at 7:30 pm on February 4th, where we'll remember our friend John Widener in a way he'd heartily approve - by listening to music made by artists he knew, playing the instrument he loved!

JOANNE BROWN, CAGO, Dean

Chapter Now Has Listserv

AGOAtlanta-L@listserv.uga.edu is now available! By now you should have received an email indicating that you have been added to AGOAtlanta-L. The notice should have had a brief summary of what a listserv is, how it functions, and a brief guide to listserv etiquette

What is a LISTSERV and what is AGOAtlanta-L? A LISTSERV is an electronic mail facility which allows you to participate in an electronic discussion group on topics of interest related to our membership. For more information on NETiquette and what a listserv is visit the following websites: Netiquette by Virginia Shea : <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/book/index.html>
What Is a Listserv? : <http://www.siec.k12.in.us/~west/edu/listman.htm>

Now chapter members can:

- * Directly submit notices of upcoming concerts, special services, etc.
- * Send questions to the membership on any topic,
- * Keep the membership notified of special member needs or other announcements.

As a member of the UGA faculty I am pleased to make this service available to the chapter.

“List Owners” will be William F. Coscarelli, wfcmusic@uga.edu , and David Barber, d_barber@bellsouth.net . If you have any questions or problems about/with the list you can contact either one of us. We both would like to be notified if your email address changes in any way as the list will only allow you to post from your registered email address. Please note you can also have more than one email registered with the list.

The Beginners Very Brief Guide to Using the AGOAtlanta-L email Listserv

1. Email address for posting messages to the AGOAtlanta-L list:

AGOAtlanta-L@listserv.uga.edu

[not case sensitive ; NOTE: there is no “E” at the end of LISTSERV]

2. The list is set up to automatically reply to the original sender of a message, otherwise everyone on the list would receive answers to a personal query and clutter up their mailboxes. With the variety of available email clients in cyberspace, please consider the following:

- a. If someone is asking for information for personal use, respond directly to that individual - please verify your response is NOT going to the list.
- b. If the person requesting the information feels the answers would be of interest to the chapter at large, offer to ‘summarize’ the responses in a follow-up email.

3. The list is currently set up to allow attachments to be sent with your email - Word.doc documents, PDF files, picture files, etc. Note that some members email clients might not accept attachments, so include contact information in the body of your email.

4. Please sign your emails with your name, and include a contact phone number, snail-mail address, name of your church/institution, etc. (Many won’t always have their Chapter Handbook right at hand to look you up)

5. The list is a tool that the chapter can use to share information, communicate notices of a time-sensitive nature - such as concerts or special services, or to gather information from the membership. So PLEASE avoid communications that might incite a "flame war" - remember, let's keep our communications civil.

6. Many good etiquette resources exist on the web and here are a couple of examples:

- a. Netiquette by Virginia Shea. <http://www.albion.com/netiquette/>
- b. The Net: User Guidelines and Netiquette By Arlene H. Rinaldi
<http://www.fau.edu/netiquette/net/>

7. Important information regarding YOUR email address(es):

a. If you use more than one email address and wish to be able to send messages to the list, BOTH addresses need to be registered:

ex.: wfcmusic@uga.edu AND wcoscarelli@charter.net

b. If your email address will change IN ANY WAY please notify:
William Coscarelli: wfcmusic@uga.edu and wcoscarelli@charter.net
David Barber: d_barber@bellsouth.net

8. Currently new members will be added to the list by contacting William Coscarelli or David Barber at the above addresses. As we monitor the activity on the list for a while it may become possible for individuals to subscribe independently.

9. If you will be going on vacation or you have multiple email addresses registered and would like only your primary email client to receive messages, follow these steps:

- a. Open a blank email - leave the subject line blank
- b. Address it to: LISTSERV@UGA.EDU [not case sensitive]
- c. Type the following line exactly into in the body of the text:

set AGOATLANTA-L nomail

d. Send the message - and confirm no subject [if you are prompted to reply]

e. To reactivate your account, follow steps a-b and type the following line in the body of your message:

set AGOATLANTA-L mail

[again, do not include any signature information -- only the above line of text]

If anyone has any questions or problems using AGOAtlanta-L please contact William Coscarelli or David Barber at the email addresses listed in item 7 above.

Saint Brigid Catholic Church

Presents

Keith Shafer, organist

Performing on the new 37 rank Casavant Frères, Opus 3832

February 12, 2005, 8:00pm

Mr. Shafer has been a finalist in all of the major American organ playing competitions and has appeared in concert throughout the United States. Since 1983 he has been Director of Music and Organist of historic St. Paul's Church in Augusta, Georgia. Mr. Shafer has made a number of recordings that have been heard on the National Public Radio program Pipedreams, Georgia Public Radio's Performance Showcase, and on South Carolina Public Radio. He will be performing works of Bach, Haydn, Widor, Yon and others.

Saint Brigid Catholic Church is located at 3400 Old Alabama Road, Alpharetta, GA. Tickets are $10 and available at the door. For more information, call 678-393-0060.

NE Georgia Chapter Plans Wayne Leupold Workshop

Teaching Beginning Organ To Children and Adults

The NE Georgia AGO Chapter invites Atlanta members to the workshop featuring teaching materials for the beginning organist on Saturday, April 16, from 9:30 AM until 12:45 PM. Breakfast will be available for $9.00. Contact Bill Coscarelli at <wfcmusic@uga.edu> or at PO Box 2551, Athens, GA 30612-0551.

Region IV Convention Planning Begins

Several members answered the call to meet and brainstorm with 2007 Convention cochairs Bruce Neswick and John Brandt recently. Some have already accepted responsibilities for this convention, and all of us will be called upon to help as the time approaches. The Convention will be June 17-21, 2007.

The AGO ATLANTA Endowment Investment Fund

Because of the enlightened foresight of the chapter's past leadership, we benefit today from the existence of a substantial investment fund currently valued at $120,000. The fund is invested in a diversified portfolio of high-quality mutual funds overseen by members of the chapter comprising the Endowment Investment Committee. The rules governing the fund permit a maximum annual payout of 5% of the average value of the fund for a three year trailing period. This distribution is to support scholarships, composition of new organ/choral works, and other special projects approved by the committee.

Just imagine what we could accomplish in supporting creative projects if the size of this fund could grow steadily in the coming years through means other than relying on the investment markets. Inviting contributions to the fund from all of us is a principal objective of Dean Joanne and your investment committee. We'll be suggesting ways you can help in the coming months.
