From the Dean

Greetings AGO Members, Friends and Colleagues,

I hope that everyone had a great Valentine's Day and are in great spirits and health.

First, I'd like to thank Druid Hills Presbyterian Church for hosting our pilot Orgelkids USA event February 4. We had the best time building our new miniature organ and playing it afterward. Many thanks to Sue Mitchell-Wallace, David Barber, Joanne Brown, Valerie Pool, John Sabine, and Debra Dickensheets for participating in this crazy fun time! We are now ready to launch the main event this Fall, so between now and then, please let all of your youngsters and their friends know that Orgelkids USA masterpiece is going to be introduced to the public. We will have a date for this exciting event soon, so please stay tuned!

I personally can hardly wait for our next event featuring the Chenaults in concert at the Cathedral of St. Philip on Saturday, March 11, at 7:30 p.m. This is a free admission concert. This exciting program will include two world premiere performances: a duet commissioned from David Briggs, Homage to Pierre Cochereau, and a solo work written expressly for the Aeolian-Skinner organ and acoustic of the Cathedral nave by Ray Chenault, Fantaisie Mystique. Come and enjoy St. Philip's majestic space and acoustics and get to experience two new world premiere pieces! There will be a reception following.

A reminder that the Quimby Organ Competition has been set for Saturday, April 22, 2023, at Dunwoody United Methodist Church. Inquiries can be made by contacting Competition Coordinator Matthew Brown, or Mary Ruth Solem.

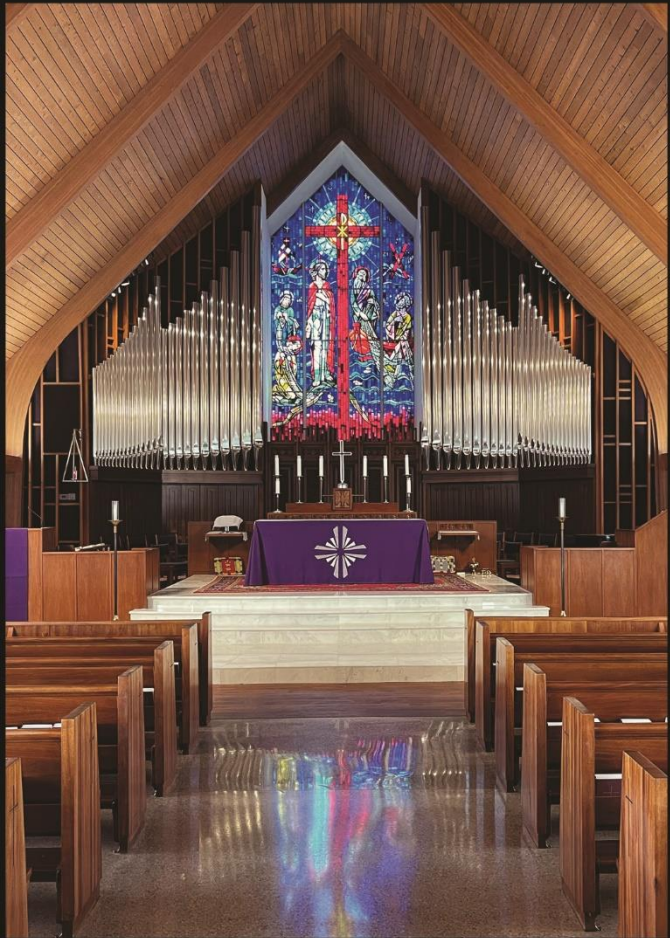

On Friday, April 28, 2023, at 7:30 p.m., Immaculate Heart of Mary and AGO Atlanta will be co-hosting a recital by the 2022 Taylor Competition First Place Winner, Katherine Joliff! She is an organ performance major at Eastman School of Music. This will be a great time to greet and congratulate Katherine on her well-deserved award! Come experience the incredible acoustics and exquisite new Sanctuary of Immaculate Heart of Mary and their new A.E. Schlueter Pipe Organ. Come support our Taylor Award Winner!

Our AGO Season Finale, on Saturday, May 20, 2023, at 7:30 p.m., will be a Hymn Festival co-hosted by Johns Creek United Methodist Church and AGO Atlanta! This is going to be a spectacular event featuring a very special artist, Dr. David Cherwin, and Johns Creek United Methodist Church Choir directed by Meg Granum, Director of Music. Come and hear the newly installed and restored Trinity-Wall Street Aeolian-Skinner Organ. Bring all of your friends and family, warm up your voices and experience a truly spiritual evening! There will be a reception following the festival.

Dear friends, once again I want to say that supporting these AGO events is the biggest gift you could possibly offer, so please show your appreciation to these wonderful artists by attending these upcoming events.

Many thanks to you all.

First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta Presents Baroque Splendor: An Evening with Bach

On Friday, March 17 at 8:00 p.m., First Presbyterian Church of Atlanta presents "Baroque Splendor: An Evening with Bach," featuring the Goldberg Variations (BWV 988) and the Partita in B minor (BWV 1002). Bach is well known for his large-scale oratorios such as the St. Matthew Passion and the Mass in B minor, which were written for soloists, choir(s) and orchestra. But he also excelled in writing stunning masterworks for just one single instrument, pushing its technical boundaries to the very limits. Join us as two virtuosi bring alive the Goldberg Variations for piano solo and the Partita in B minor for violin solo (from the collection of Six Sonatas and Partitas), two stellar examples of how Bach made one instrument sound like a full orchestra! Admission is $20. For more information, see www.concertsatfirst.org

Bach Birthday Bash at Redeemer Lutheran Church

On Friday, March 17 at 7:30 p.m., Lutheran Church of the Redeemer presents their annual "Bach Birthday Bash." Admission is free and all are welcome.

Glenn Memorial United Methodist Church Presents Bach's St. John Passion

On Friday, March 24 at 7:00 p.m., Glenn Memorial United Methodist Church presents Bach's St. John Passion, sung by soloists Erik Gustafson and Wade Thomas and the Glenn Memorial Chancel Choir and orchestra. This gripping setting tells both the story of Christ's trial, condemnation, and death as found in the Gospel of John, as well as comments on these events from a poetic perspective through beautiful solos, choruses, and chorales (hymns). We hope you can join us to hear this historically important and deeply meaningful piece of music! Admission is free, with a free-will offering to support Glenn's music ministry.
