Invite Your Choir Members To a Southern Breakfast And a Helpful, Hopeful Workshop For Singers and Directors

Keys to the Choral Kingdom

Most directors and choir members would agree on what things makes choirs sound good...or would they? What are the essential elements that lead to a beautiful and expressive choral sound? What factors are important in creating a choir with good diction or impeccable intonation. Can a nonprofessional choir even aspire to choral artistry? Can a choir filled with soloists blend?

What about aging voices, wobbling voices, or choristers that don't read music?

At the AGO workshop on March 20th we will look at these and many other aspects of the choral craft. If your choir sings like "this" and you wish it sang like "that"--this session is for you.

Eric Nelson's Bio is on page 7.

Important Reminders from Arden

The front driveway turns in just north of the buildings. Be very careful if you are heading south on Peachtree Road and have to turn left. There is a back entrance off of Bolling Road, if you wish to come off of E. Wesley. Park wherever you can find a space.

Do NOT go into the Family Life Center. Walk up towards Peachtree and enter the Chapel Building at the bridge with the green awning. Follow the orange signs.

There is a handicapped entrance at the front of the Chapel Building and through the Children's Building. Please call Arden Starnes at 404.591.4371 by Friday if you have a need for these entrances to be open.

Executive Board Meeting
Saturday, March 20
Second-Ponce de Leon Baptist Church
(Following Choral Workshop)

From the Dean

Ah, spring! As of this writing, I am enjoying a teaser of spring days to come courtesy of Mother Nature. Though winter is not over, the end is just around the corner. With the thoughts of spring we move towards the season of Lent and Easter. Please take our March meeting into consideration for your plans and preparation.

Our own Dr. Eric Nelson will be leading our workshop in March with the focus on Choral work. Please note that this is a Saturday workshop. Having had the opportunity to experience Dr. Nelson's workshops in the past, you do not want to miss this one! Be sure to make your reservations.

Our thanks to Billy Krape of Sacred Heart Catholic Church for hosting, our Member's Recital with Kelly Whittier. Our dinner possessed a wonderful Valentine's Day theme and Kelly delivered a fine recital. A special thanks to Dewey and Victor Kramer for their support and participation in sponsoring this event.

This month's newsletter contains the information for those members who have been proposed by the Nomination Committee for the upcoming election. I encourage you to take a moment and read through the information. The elections will be held at our final meeting in May at Spivey Hall. My thanks to Philip Newton and his committee for all of their work.

Don't forget two of our special events this spring and summer! Keith Nash is looking for students for the Scholarship Competition in April. Please contact Keith for further information. We also are looking for potential students for the Pipe Organ Encounters in June. The POE Committee is diligently working to finalize plans for the summer event. Spread the word.

Best to all for the Lenten and Easter Season. See you in March!

Phil Parkey, Dean

Sub-Dean's Corner

Many of you were MISSED at our February 10th valentine meal, followed by Kelly Whittier's sparkling concert on Sacred Heart's Casavant organ. A lovely reception was the gift of Drs. Dewey and Victor Kramer, providing the artist an opportunity to greet friends from her days in the Atlanta area when she was a member of our chapter.

Don't miss it! Invite your choir members to Saturday Breakfast & Workshop (concluding at noon) on March 20th, so together we can partake of Dr. Eric Nelson's insights, practical suggestions, and passion for the choral art!

POE 2004 is fast approaching: June 20-25th at Agnes Scott. Tell every teenage piano student you know! Spread the word to your friends who teach piano. Your plug is worth 1000 brochures! As housemom for AGO Atlanta's National Pipe Organ Encounters in 1995 and 2000, I encourage you to get on board for unforgettable, worthwhile experiences with the organists of tomorrow.

Teaching at POE will be Paul Jacobs - organist for our Tuesday May 11th concert at Spivey Hall, preceded by a lakeside dinner which has already been dubbed "The Betty Williford Birthday Bash"! ...and speaking of birthdays, watch for details of a glorious celebration of our Chapter's 90th: It's not too early to mark your calendar for 2nd Tues. in October 2004 at All Saints.

I hope your musical and personal plans for Lent and Easter come to fruition with the least possible amount of stress! A complete list of Chapter Members who participated in the (suggested April 18th) multiple-location premiere of Billy Krape's commissioned piece, "This Joyful Eastertide" will appear in the May issue of this newsletter. Please send your name, church/location to bettylouw@mindspring.com before the April 15th newsletter deadline (or phone me at 404 545-3998).

A huge and heartfelt THANK YOU goes to Philip Newton, Chairman of the Nominating Committee & members Madonna Brownlee, Bob Wolfersteig, Gwyn Bacon, and Jeff Harbin, for their diligent work in scouting out a talented group of leaders to serve our AGO Chapter!

Choral Vespers

In the "Called to Common Mission" relationship, Living Grace Evangelical Lutheran and St. Bartholomew's Episcopal churches of Atlanta will offer Choral Vespers at St. Bartholomew's, 1790 LaVista Road, on Sunday, 18 April, at 4:00 p.m. The ecumenical service will be led by clergy from both parishes and the Matej Waschek Choir of Emory University, assisted by soprano Arietha Lockhart and a chamber orchestra. The music will be conducted by Philip Newton, Living Grace's church musician, in partial fulfillment of the requirements for the Master of Sacred Music degree at Emory. The public is invited to participate.

G. F. Handel's vespers psalm, Laudate pueri (HWV 237), is the central choral work of the service. It will be preceded by M. Lauridsen's O nata lux and N. Rorem's "Phos hilarion." The gospel canticle is C. V. Stanford's Magnificat in C, and other featured works are U. Sisask's Oremus and R. W. Dirksen's "Sing, Ye Faithful, Sing with Gladness." Dr. Robert F. Wolfersteig will play L. King's "Resurrection" as the prelude on the new Rosales organ.

Eric Nelson

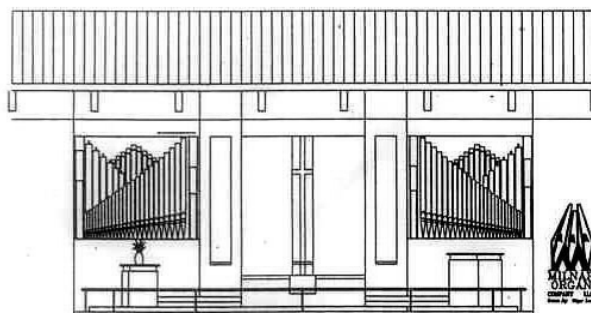

Eric Nelson is Director of Choral Studies at Emory University, where he teaches graduate choral conducting and choral literature. He conducts Emory's 40-voice Concert Choir and its 170-voice University Chorus. Dr. Nelson is also the Artistic Director of the Atlanta Sacred Chorale, a 55-voice adult chamber choir specializing in sacred a cappella repertoire, and the Minister of Music at the historic 2nd-Ponce de Leon Baptist Church in Atlanta.

Dr. Nelson's ensembles have been praised for their consistently high level of technical excellence and for their warmth of musical expression. In 2002-2003, he conducted choirs in Krakow, Berlin, Leipzig, Prague, Moscow, Washington, D.C., Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Spivey Hall, at both the Southern Division and National Conventions Convention of the American Choral Directors Association, and at the Piccolo Spoleto Festival. Highly regarded as a clinician, adjudicator, lecturer, and guest conductor, Dr. Nelson has conducted and presented workshops for the American Choral Directors Association, the Music Educators National Conference, the Association of Lutheran Church Musicians, the Presbyterian Association of Musicians, the American Guild of Organists, Choristers Guild, and for numerous colleges and universities.

Nelson holds degrees in choral conducting and vocal performance from Houghton College, Westminster Choir College, and Indiana University. He is also a baritone soloist, an accomplished organist, and a composer whose choral music is published by Colla Voce and Augsburg Fortress.

Pipe Organ Encounter

The name of Dr. Faythe Freese of the University of Alabama should be added to the list of out-of-town faculty members in last month's issue of The Organizer. Because she is a member of this chapter, we considered her as one of us, even though she is from Alabama.

A group of POE committee members met recently to process the brochures for mailing. You should receive one soon. Keith Huffstetter helped with the work.

Commissioned Work

The 2004 commissioned work, This Joyful Eastertide, by William E. Krape, has been well received. Many of you have indicated that you are planning to play it during April. If your name is not included in the list on page 4, please contact the editor by April 15, so you can be included in the May issue.

If you still do not have a copy, and would like to have one, please contact the editor as soon as possible. There is no charge.

March Choral Workshop

Your choir members are invited to participate in the March 21 workshop with Eric Nelson at Second-Ponce de Leon Baptist.

E-mail Addresses

This is the next-to-last newsletter of the season, and we STILL need correct e-mail addresses for some of you. Please send your correct e-mail address to <d_barber@bellsouth.net> or <bettylouw@mindspring.com>.

Practice Time Needed

Several fine organists who do not have regular church positions need a place to practice. Is your church available? Contact the editor and she will pass the information along.

Newsletter News

The Organizer is available in .PDF format on the chapter website. You MUST have Acrobat Reader 5.0 or higher on your computer in order to download. Please be patient until the process is complete. This method is much faster than opening an e-mail attachment, so give it a try.

Now we are able to send The Organizer to more than half of our mailing list. This greatly reduces both cost and preparation time.

Thanks to Keith Huffstetter for his help with folding, labeling, and stamping.

WABE

The Sunday schedule for WABE FM 90.1 has changed. Tapestry is now at 9:30 PM, and Pipedreams now is heard at 10:30 PM. From the Top has been moved to Friday at 9 PM.
