Atlanta Chapter

Let's Celebrate!

The Atlanta Chapter has a rich heritage of continuous and colorful activity. As we celebrate our upcoming ninetieth birthday in October, I hope that we can begin preparation for our centennial year. Many of our current members have been around for many years and have much to share. As I have researched material and bugged people for information for this anniversary, I have enjoyed reading and hearing about the early years. As a native Atlantan, I have many memories of the past forty years as a member of the Atlanta Chapter. Hopefully, we can get a group of members together and produce a "blockbuster" film about the Atlanta Chapter.

Did you know . . .

During the first year, the Georgia Chapter had a total membership of thirty-three, including one fellow and one associate. Annual AGO dues were $3.00 and a church dinner cost 50 cents.

In the early years, prominent Atlanta churches provided details of their service music for the Saturday evening church pages of the Atlanta Journal.

In 1919, a motion was made and carried that "a fine of twenty-five cents be made for members not attending meetings." Has this motion been rescinded?

Marcel Dupré gave a recital at Presser Hall on the Agnes Scott campus in 1948.

Now for a little quiz. If you cannot answer the following questions, then you need to come to the October meeting.

David Briggs

Acclaimed as one of the foremost concert organists of his generation, David Briggs enjoys a busy touring schedule. He has built a considerable reputation as an exciting performer and communicator, with particular emphases on orchestral transcriptions and the art of improvisation.

He studied improvisation with Jean Langlais in Paris; transcribed many of the recorded improvisations of Pierre Cochereau, won the Paisley International Improvisation Competition; became the first British winner of the coveted Tournemire Prize at the St Albans International Improvisation Competition, and now teaches improvisation at the Royal Northern College of Music, the Royal Academy of Music and Oxford University.

He is Organist Emeritus of Gloucester Cathedral. He held similar positions at Truro and Hereford Cathedrals and at King's College, Cambridge, where he was Organ Scholar. He was Principal Viola in the National Youth Orchestra of Great Britain, playing under conductors such as Sir Simon Rattle, Sir Charles Groves, Charles Dutoit, and Kiril Kondrashin, and was awarded their Bulgin Medal for Musical Excellence. He obtained his FRCO at the age of seventeen, winning all the prizes and the Silver Medal of the Worshipful Company of Musicians. While at Gloucester, he oversaw the complete rebuilding of the Cathedral organ by Nicholson, and directed the Three Choirs Festivals on three occasions, conducting some of the UK's finest professional orchestras, notably the Philharmonia.

David Briggs is increasingly in demand as a composer. Recent works include his a setting of the Solemn Requiem Mass for All Saint's Episcopal Church, Atlanta, Georgia.

His schedule for 2003 included some fifty concerts - in the USA (four trips), UK, France, Belgium and South Africa - and in July he was a member of the jury for the St Albans International Organ Competition. When not pursuing musical activities, David Briggs continues work towards receiving his private airplane pilot's license.

8. Who was the first internationally known artist to give an organ recital in Atlanta? It should be noted that he was invited back the next year for another recital.
9. At the 1975 regional convention, the Atlanta chapter organized a society to honor the 200th birthday of what British organist and composer?

You will hear more fascinating facts in October, plus some hilarious stories. One story from a charter member, a dear lady whom many of us remember: One church organist says to another, "Do you like Buxtehude?" The second replies, "I don't know Buck's Te Hude, but his Te Deum is one of my favorites."

I hope that you will avail yourselves of the opportunity to hear the centuries-old choir of men and boys from Hereford Cathedral in England. We are particularly pleased to be able to welcome this choir, as our own choir of trebles and adults sang at Hereford Cathedral last summer on a two-week trip that also found us at St. Albans' Cathedral and Westminster Abbey.

The director of Hereford Cathedral Choir, Geraint Bowen, is no stranger to Atlanta, having directed two summer camps for girl and adult choristers sponsored by the Royal School of Church Music and based at Agnes Scott College. Before moving to Hereford, he served for several years at the Anglican Cathedral in St. David's, Wales. As the director of the Hereford choir, Mr. Bowen is responsible for the music at the cathedral, ranging from the weekly round of daily services to the concerts and services associated with the very popular and annual Three Choirs' Festival.

I also hope that you will attend this concert in order to see the results of our months-long renovation project at the Cathedral. The wine and cheese reception following the concert will be held in the Atrium of the new building and will be a golden opportunity for you to have a "look-see," as well as to meet the members of the Hereford choir and its director.

From the Dean

I became a member of the Atlanta Chapter of AGO in 1984 when I retired my snow shovel and moved down from Rutherford, New Jersey, right outside the Lincoln Tunnel (where I'd been a member of the Metropolitan NJ AGO Chapter). Even after twenty years, this 'Yankee' is still a newcomer compared to our longtime 'VIP Members' who will share some fascinating and hilarious stories at our 90th Anniversary Celebration on Tuesday, October 12th! Plan to arrive EARLY (by 6 PM!) at All Saints to join in some surprises, laughs, and displayed memorabilia to peruse, followed by David Briggs' concert on the much-applauded Buzard! During the festive meal, we will honor Past Chapter Deans and share a special Anniversary Cake. Once again, (as it was on September 14th), wine will be provided by Keith Vansant, whose generosity adds value to the $12 cost of dinner! Thanks to Dan Pruitt, Pamela Ingram, and our Chapter Historian Don Robinson for their time and energy preparing an unforgettable event to recall when we reach our 100th Anniversary in 2014.

I'm sorry that many of you missed our Annual Guild Worship Service on September 14th, which was preceded by a delicious meal in the Parish Hall of St. John's Episcopal Church in College Park. A beautiful service of Choral Evensong had been carefully prepared by Jon Marc Rutherford, Organist & Choirmaster, and Dock Anderson, whose Choristers from Woodward Academy joined with the Choir of St. John's. Thanks also to our dapper bow-tied host, Keith Huffstetter (who is both Assistant Organist and Curator/builder of the organ!), and to the Officiating Clergy for the evening: the Rev. Ruth Healy (Associate Priest at St. John's), the Rev. Ken Boone our Chaplain, and the Very Rev. Charles Roper (Chapter Member whose father was an organ builder). Jeff Harbin provided yet another opportunity to purchase additions to our personal libraries of organ music. Those not present to enjoy Will Rogers' colorful photo display of Pipe Organ Encounter 2004, may still wish to send contributions to help us pay the few hundred dollars remaining on the bill, which overflowed along with the number of 34 students pictured on page 19 of our new Yearbook. Please mail checks to POE Treasurer David Ritter at 2289 Fairhaven Circle NE Atlanta 30305

Fliers to advertise Wilma Jensen's concert at St. Luke's Episcopal Church on FRIDAY, November 12th, will be available from our new Publicity Chairman, Nicholas Bowden. Also, please contact Jeff Harbin or myself if you can help set up for the Saturday, November 13th MEGA-sale (where you can select from more than 20 boxes worth) of organ music and vinyl recordings of vintage performances. The sale will take place before/at break/& after the three-hour Organ Master Class with Ms. Jensen on the Casavant Freres instrument at Roswell Presbyterian Church!

Mark your Calendar NOW to attend our Chapter Christmas Party on Tuesday, December 28th. Come hear and play the new Peragallo pipe organ (pictured on page 33 of May '04 TAO) in the Atlanta residence of our party hosts, John and Winter Whitney. Required Advance Reservations for 12/28 can be prepaid at our November 12 & 13 events.

We send our heartfelt prayers for Doug Johnson, Eloise Wolfersteig, and Jim Wingate (whose son James was wounded in Iraq recently). Our current Membership is at least 310, with 23 new or renewing members since August 12th. Do you know a church musician who is not yet an AGO member? Is there a Chapter Member you haven't seen at a guild event in a long while? It only takes a few minutes to phone with a warm invitation for someone to attend one of this year's wonderful monthly events. Why not offer a ride, have a pleasant visit while you carpool, sit together at dinner and 'introduce them around'? Updated brochures for AGO Chapter Membership will soon be available to distribute, but a glossy sheet of paper is no substitute for a conversation or a sincere handshake from you, my friends!

JOANNE BROWN, CAGO, Dean

CHESTER Variations

David Stills reports that his composition, Variations on CHESTER, has been published by H.W.Gray/Warner Brothers. It was composed for the inaugural concert of the organ at Chester Presbyterian Church in Chester, Virginia. Its Atlanta premiere at Warren UMC on Sunday, October 17 at 4 PM.

The University of Alabama Church Music Conference

Organist Christopher Herrick will be featured at the January 29 event in Tuscaloosa, Alabama.

Workshops will be offered in Handbells, Children's Choirs, Vocal Coaching, Solo Voice Repertoire, Organ Repertoire, Choral Conducting, and Hymnody. There will also be a choral reading session and an organ masterclass.

From the Sub-Dean

On Saturday, November 13, Wilma Jensen, a legendary organ recitalist and teacher, will be leading an extended 3-hour master class at Roswell Presbyterian Church.. This is a rare opportunity for members to study her teaching techniques and learn from her experience. The focus will not be so much a "coaching session" with a particular student on a specific piece as it will be a broader sharing of a master's thoughts on performance practices, technique, interpretation, practice methods, and editions. Members who would like to be "playing" participants in the class are invited to bring in pieces they are learning, or have always wanted to learn.

If you are interested in playing for the class, please contact Michael Morgan (michael30213@earthlink.net) and sign up as soon as possible. Thanks!

Michael Morgan

James Wingate

Jim Wingate's son James was injured in Iraq last week. You can keep up with his progress at <http://www.wingatenet.org/JAMESWINGATE/-14September04/james14sept04.htm>

Please keep Jim and his family in your prayers.

Thank you for using the online version of The Organizer. The number of printed copies continues to decrease. Not only does it save the chapter the expense of copying and mailing, but it saves time -- MY TIME, as well as that of others who help assemble, label, stamp, and "sticker" the newsletter every month.

Please remember that the deadline for each issue is the 15th of the preceding month. It is my goal to have both the online and printed editions available to the members well before the first of the month.

You may have noticed that the Performance Calendar is available on the chapter website, <www.agoatlanta.org> and it is updated frequently. It usually has listings that don't appear in The Organizer.

Please keep me informed if you change your email address. Dave Barber and I really need this information. Please make your reservation for the October meeting as soon as possible. We need to know how much birthday cake to buy!
