Recital: 8:00 pm

The cost for dinners & lunches for this season will be $14

DEADLINE FOR RESERVATIONS WILL BE THURSDAY, OCTOBER 7, 2010

AGOAtlanta\_reservations@charter.net

Come enjoy a fabulous fall feast and then take the opportunity to learn from some of our chapter's experts in their field. You'll have the chance to choose between two of the three half hour sessions:

Guild Certification - Take an up close look at the various levels of guild certification. One of the founding basis for the AGO, certification provides another level of measurable and marketable skills.. Having an AGO certification level on your resume in this economy is important. Lead by Jeffrey McIntire, Chapter Certification Coordinator.

Improvisation - Hear about what it takes to make it to the top levels of the national improvisation competition. Learn techniques to help you explore the art of improvisation in your own musical setting. See hands on demonstrations from our leaders and class participants. Lead by Herb Buffington and Albert Ahlstrom.

The Life and Times of Dudley Buck - Having just written and had published a book on this interesting organist, our presenter will discuss the life of one of the earliest American opera composers but better known in his lifetime as an organist and church composer. Lead by Lee Orr.

WILMA JENSEN in Concert

The Atlanta Chapter began its 2010-11 season September 14, 2010 with a stunning and exciting organ concert by Wilma Jensen at The Cathedral of St. Philip. This petite woman was in complete control of the beautiful 4-manual Aeolian-Skinner organ. Her programming was innovative and refreshing, using all 20th and 21st century music. She began with “Méditation VI” from Messiaen’s Méditations sur le mystère de la Sainte Trinité, a bold opening statement played with great aplomb. The program continued with interesting musical contrasts from France, England and the United States of America.

Ms Jensen’s excellent technique was evident throughout the evening. Her playing was very skillful and at the same time quite musical. The hours Dr. Jensen spends on piano technique are quite evident in her organ skills. Her registrations displayed the colors of the organ beautifully and allowed all the voices of the music to be heard. Her arrangement of “Gabriel’s Oboe” from the movie The Mission was a lovely encore concluding a most enjoyable recital.

A MESSAGE FROM THE DEAN ~

Thank you to Dale Adelman, David Fishburn and Timothy Gunter for hosting our opening concert by Wilma Jensen at the Cathedral of St. Philip on Tuesday, September 14. Ms. Jensen presented a delightful program of short, colorful pieces from the French, English and American traditions. Her playing was impeccable, as always. I especially enjoyed hearing several compositions that were unfamiliar to me. Many commented that her program was a perfect start to our 2010-2011 season! I would also like to express my appreciation to Gwyn Bacon, Joyce Parks and Carolyn Thorsen for their donations that made the camera, screen and projector possible. It was wonderful to be able to watch Dr. Jensen at the console. The dinner beforehand was superb. Thank you to Pamela Ingram and the three Keiths - Huffstetter, Nash and Vansant for providing the wine. Sub Dean Tim Young did an outstanding job coordinating this event.

It was great to see our Atlanta AGO Banner in use once again! Detective Bobby Mays came across it in the Acolytes' Robing Room at St. Luke's Episcopal Church. Apparently a well-meaning sexton deposited it there after one of our recitals several years back. Ironically, the recitalist that evening was none other than Wilma Jensen. What an unusual coincidence!

Our October meeting will be held at Saint Mark United Methodist Church on Peachtree Street. Thanks in advance to John Richardson for hosting this event.

THOSE WHO REQUESTED THE YEARBOOK TO BE MAILED WILL RECEIVE THEM SHORTLY.

Our next meeting is just around the corner. Next week I will begin sending the necessary reminders to rally the troops for a great evening of learning as we seek to refine our craft. This cursory memo has one intended purpose: hassle free dinner reservations!

Please note the following:

1. The correct email address for making your dinner reservation is AGOAtlanta\_reservations@charter.net
2. You MUST receive a confirmation of your email reservation. It's not 100% fool-proof, but if you have not heard back from me within 24 hours, you will want to follow up with another email. My procedure is to send the confirmation as I am actually typing in your name on "the list."
3. The reservations made by telephone are emailed to me late Thursday evening. Please be sure to make phone reservations early. No confirmation is sent for these, of course, but that part of the process is pretty reliable!

THANKS!!

David Barber, Chair

- Free parking is available on Tuesdays 6-10 pm, in the lot at the corner of Peachtree and 6th Streets, parking on the Juniper end of the lot as the Peachtree side is ALWAYS reserved for the lot owner's use. The lot at the corner of Juniper and 5th Streets is also available.
- The lot next to the red brick house located at 768 Juniper Street is also available. Enter this lot from Juniper Street and use the pedestrian gate to get to the church.
- The lot immediately behind the church on 5th Street should be reserved for our senior chapter members and those with handicap parking stickers. Street parking along Peachtree and 5th Streets is not available during the week. Some sections of Juniper allow street parking at certain times of the day - follow the instructions on the street signs.
- For dinner, please enter one of the doors on the back side of the building, located off the back parking lot, or at the top of the side ramp. Signs will be posted for AGO. The front red doors to the sanctuary will also be opened.

Young Organist Competition 2011

In order to offer an incentive for middle and high school students to continue the study of organ, the Greater Columbia Chapter of AGO has established the Young Organist Competition 2011 which will be held on Saturday, March 5, 2011. Students in Grades 8-12 will submit a CD of their playing of required repertoire for a panel of judges who will select semifinalists. The winners of the semifinal round will come to Columbia to perform for a panel of outstanding judges. The first-place winner will receive $1000 and an opportunity to return to Columbia at a later date to perform on an organ recital. For rules of the competition and an application form go to www.columbiaago.org and click on Young Organist Competition.

It is exciting that there is a younger generation of organists. They need challenges to bring their playing to the highest possible level through opportunities to perform. Your help in making this dream come true will be greatly appreciated.

... more from the DEAN

Education has always been an important aspect of membership in the AGO. This is clearly identified in our mission statement:

The purpose of the American Guild of Organists is to promote the organ in its historic and evolving roles, to encourage excellence in the performance of organ and choral music, and to provide a forum for mutual support, inspiration, education, and certification of Guild members.

As musicians, we need to continually refine our skills and acquire new ones. I would like to highly encourage you to take part in our October offerings. Three workshops will be presented - you will be able to attend two of the three events. Each session will last for forty five minutes with a ten minute break in the middle. The workshops will begin at 7:45 pm (fifteen minutes earlier than usual) so that each presenter will have adequate time to cover his material.

Here in Atlanta, we are blessed with a wealth of talent. Four of our outstanding chapter members will lead the workshop sessions - Albert Ahlstrom, Herbert Buffington, Jeffrey McIntyre and Lee Orr.

Albert and Herb were two of five finalists selected to compete in the National Competition in Organ Improvisation held during the National Convention in Washington, D. C. in July. We were so pleased to learn that Herb was awarded second prize - congratulations Herb! These two talented gentlemen will share their insights on this topic with us. I can speak from experience that improvisation is an extremely useful tool for a church musician. You don't have to be a concert artist to benefit from this session. Even if you only play for your own enjoyment, I think you would gain something from attending this event. The workshop will be held in the church's beautiful historic sanctuary which houses a three manual Aeolian-Skinner pipe organ.

For many years, Jeffrey McIntyre has headed up our chapter's Certification Program. Guild certification is beneficial for all of our members working in the fields of organ and choral music. For those who may not have music degrees it is a practical way to receive professional training in the field of church music. For those of us who already possess degrees, it's an excellent way to keep our skills sharp and learn a few new tricks. And it's not just for organists - there's also an excellent track for choral conductors. The certification session will be held in the chapel which houses a lovely two manual instrument of fifteen ranks built by our own Phil Parkey and his staff in 2004. - continued on pg 7

Last, but certainly not least, will be an informative session led by Dr. Lee Orr of Georgia State University on the life and music of Dudley Buck. In 2008, the University of Illinois Press published Dr. Orr's book Dudley Buck, a concise introduction to the life and work of this popular Victorian composer of organ and choral music. Dr. Orr has also edited a new authoritative edition of selected works by Buck, part of the Recent Researches in American Music series. A conductor, organist, and teacher, Buck was the first American to write professional, accessible, and popular organ music, as well as a wealth of choral music, including anthems, cantatas, and part songs. Dr. Orr's lecture will also include pictures and recorded musical examples. Dr. Orr was one of my favorite professors at GSU - I always learned so much in his classes. I can assure you that you are in for a treat!

I do hope that you will make plans to join us on Tuesday evening, October 12th!

Jeff Harbin, Dean
